FAIRBANKS ENDORSED

Think Special Session of Congress Will be Called

Republicans Will Name Their State Ticket Thursday Morning.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—Senator Beveridge today before the Republican state convention, joined hands with Vice President Fairbanks in a plan for a revision of the tariff immediately after the coming election. Both profess to believe that the President will yet decide on a special session immediately after election. Fairbanks' declaration in favor of immediate revision was inspired, he admitted, by the apprehension that the Democrats might control the next house and have a hand in revising the tariff. The platform adopted endorses President Roosevelt, declares for tariff revision by a special session after the coming election and endorses Vice President Fairbanks as the party's candidate for President. A feature of the platform is the declaration for county local option. The ticket will not be named until tomorrow.

CROWDS RIOT AND FIGHT

SEVERAL THOUSAND UNEMPLOY-
ED IN PHILADELPHIA FIGHT DESPERATELY.

Many Hurt and Repeated Charges
Are Made By Police, Who Still Remain on Guard.

Philadelphia, April 1.—A terrific riot of unemployed occurred today about the site of Hammerstein's new opera house. Several thousand men fought desperately in the streets until repeated police charges scattered them. Many were more or less seriously hurt. Police were compelled to remain on guard to prevent a fresh outbreak.

Contractors on the opera house had advertised for men and about 3000 had gathered, negroes making up the greater part of the throng. While the crowd was awaiting the contractors' orders, a party of about 100 Italians advanced also in search of work. Those first on the ground fearing the new arrivals would secure many of the vacant places, quarrelling began and the entire mob soon engaged in a desperate fight. Several riot calls were turned in and a number of patrol wagon-loads of policemen were rushed to the scene. At first they could make no impression on the crowd, but finally scattered them by repeated charges with drawn clubs.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT ASSIST REPUBLICANS OUT OF THEIR DILEMMA

Washington, April 1.—The Democratic members of the Senate committee on military affairs seem almost to have come to a realization that it is not necessary for them to assist the administration Republicans out of their dilemma in the Brownsville affair. The committee met yesterday afternoon to consider two bills having as their object the reinstatement in the army of the members of the negro battalion who were dismissed without honor by the President on account of the shooting up of the Texas town.

One of these bills was introduced by Senator Warner, of Missouri, and provides for the reinstatement of those soldiers who can satisfy the President of their nonparticipation in the shooting affair. The other bill was offered by Senator Foraker, of Ohio, and, on the assumption that the negroes had nothing to do with the shooting, directs their reinstatement without condition.

At the meeting Senator Warner moved that his bill be reported favorably to the Senate. His motion was supported by Senators Lodge, Warren, Du Pont and Warner, Republicans, but was defeated by the votes of Senators Foraker, Scott, Hemenway and Bulkley, Republicans, and the five Democratic members of the committee. Senator Foraker then moved that his bill be re-

The marauders rifled desks. They effected an entrance with tools from a machine shop. The screams of frightened Arnett hall aroused the janitor, who pursued the marauders. They fired several shots at him as they fled. Bits of burned papers thrown about the floor in Galloway hall by the prowlers set fire to the rug in several places.

SENATOR

Got His Gun and Started After Assailant

A SENSATIONAL FIGHT

Blood Drawn On Senator Jeff Davis in Little Rock Street Fight

Claims Attempt was Made by Prosecutor T. E. Helm to Kill Him.

Little Rock, Ark., April 1.—United States Senator Jeff Davis was today fined $25 on the charge of disturbing the peace, because he hunted Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Helm with a big revolver after Helm had beaten Davis with his own cane. Davis testified that the attack was a cowardly attempt to assassinate him and he had a right to shoot.

Little Rock, Ark., April 1.—Senator Jeff Davis and T. E. Helm, deputy prosecuting attorney of this district, were the principals in a sensational street fight Tuesday afternoon. Senator Davis was walking up West Second street and had turned the corner near Louisiana to go to his office in the Reigler building when he encountered Mr. Helm. The latter says that when he met Davis in crossing the street, the senator made an insulting personal remark to him, and he resented it with a blow with his fist. Helm says that he thinks he merely struck him twice with his fist, but does not know whether he struck him or not with the cane which the senator dropped in the fight. Davis ran toward his office and Helm followed him about half way, but could not overtake him. Helm then went to his office in the Southern Trust building, carrying the senator's cane.

Davis went to his office and in a few moments emerged with a big pistol which he flourished wildly in the air. He went to the corner of the People's bank, where he flourished the weapon, gesticulated and was heard to declare that he would like "to get a shot at him."

Mr. Helm refused to make any formal statement, but said he met Senator Davis on Louisiana street, and after a word or two had been passed, he struck Senator Davis with his fist.

"Senator Davis then turned and ran," said Mr. Helm, when telling of the affair to some of his friends, "and I followed, picking up the cane. I don't think that I hit him with it, but I know I struck him twice with my fist. I will send the cane back, I guess, but I don't know yet what I will do further in the matter. I don't know anything of his getting a gun and did not run away from him."

The cane captured by Mr. Helm is the gold-headed stick which was presented to the senator by admiring friends of Springfield on the first day of January, 1905.

Senator Davis' head and face were covered with blood, but he was able to return to his office after his injuries had been dressed by Dr. Runyan. Mr. Helm did not receive a blow.

The trouble was caused by Senator Davis denouncing Mr. Helm on every stump during the recent campaign. He charged Mr. Helm with being the beneficiary of several robberies com-

COMMITTEE STRIKING PAY DIRT IN STATE TREASURY PROBE

Columbus, O., April 1.—Colonel W. H. Knauss, an aged Columbus capitalist, testified before the Howland senate committee Wednesday, that in August, 1905, he borrowed of the Columbus Savings and Trust Co. $180,000 at a bonus of $10,000 and 6 per cent interest, through Isaac B. Cameron, then state treasurer and director of the bank, after President Cyrus Huling, of the bank, had repeatedly declared the bank to be without the funds to make the loan. Asked by Attorney Boyd, for the committee, if he had any knowledge of the source of the funds which he borrowed, or whether the state funds had been mentioned during the negotiations, Knauss said: "A person sometimes does a lot of thinking along some lines, but does not think out loud. I did not care much about the source. There was no mention made of state funds. Cameron did not say how the funds were secured."

Both men will be given a hearing in police court this afternoon.

Sensor Davis gave out the following statement:

"To My Friends Throughout Arkansas—There was a cold-blooded, cowardly attempt to assassinate me today by the prosecuting attorney's office of this county. I left my office at 11 45 a. m., and went to Al Cohen's gent's 'furnishing goods' store. Coming back I crossed to the cigar stand at Thalheimer Bros. on Second street. I noticed Tom Helm standing there talking to a gentleman whom I did not know. I passed almost by them when Helm struck me with a loaded 'bat' near the temple dazing me and causing me to drop my walking cane, which rolled about ten feet down the street. He struck me a second lick which knocked off my hat but did not injure me. I went to my office in the Reigler building, and got my navy six, and returning I saw Helm running like a coward, with my stick in his hand, near the Southern Trust building.

"This was a cowardly unprovoked effort at assassination, instigated no doubt, by his boss, Rhoton. I was not seriously hurt, but it was no fault of Helm's, as he used a loaded 'bat' covered with leather, eight inches long, with a large loaded end and a strap over his wrist. It is stated on the street that Helm took from me my cane and hit me with it. This is an unmitigated lie. When I got back with my gun I saw him running towards his office with my cane in his hand.

"This is the first time that the grafters and hoodlums have had a victory, and they are so intoxicated with their success that they would commit murder if necessary to perpetuate their reign. They dread Jeff Davis before the people and therefore they would kill him."

WILL BLOCKADE PORTS

Desired That Congress be Made a Party to the Action

Sec'y Root Attempted to Settle
Disputes as Did Secretary Hay
But Failed of Success.

Washington, April 1.—The correspondence submitted to congress by President Roosevelt in the Venezuelan controversy covers 1,000 printed pages and reveals in all its details the difficulties which this government has experienced in reaching a satisfactory settlement with President Castro with respect to various American claims.

Repeated demands are disclosed of the part of the state department for the arbitration of these claims by an international court, as are also the evasions and subterfuges resorted to by Castro in dodging the issue.

The administration as has been stated before in these dispatches, is prepared to employ drastic methods to bring Castro to realization of his international responsibilities but desires congress to be a party to every action may be taken.

It is intended that a joint resolution be reported from the committee on foreign relations authorizing the President to increase the duties of Venezuelan imports, the bulk of which come to this country, and, necessary, to close all American ports to such importations.

The administration is willing to go as far as to blockade Venezuelan ports in order to bring Castro to terms but the purpose is to strike Castro commercially first.

The most interesting features of the correspondence are those in Secretary Root figured. Various attempts had been made by previous administrations to effect a settlement of the American claims, the weary Hay having gone so far as to lay down what was regarded as most an ultimatum. But all attempts failed of success as a lapse of many months Secretary Root felt bound again to reach an agreement.

In a letter to Minister R. February 28, 1907, Mr. Root the difficulties encountered by various American claimants, instructed Mr. Russell to demand redress. The letter closed with this statement:

"You are instructed to bring several causes of complaint to immediate and serious attention of the Venezuelan Government, insist that the government you are accredited shall give every demand herein set forth immediate consideration."

CRESCENT COMEDY CO.

In their presentation of "Utah" at the Auditorium the Crescent Comedy company again demonstrated the fact that it is one of the best popular priced attractions to appear at the theater this season. MRS. FISKE.

One always expects Mrs. Fiske's plays to be beautifully staged, and according to report, her production of "Rosmersholm," on Tuesday, April 1, is no exception to the rule. The settings showing the living room and the library at Rosmersholm, have all the illusion of reality. A half dozen paintings of the Rosmers look down from the walls. The furnishings are solid, rich, tasteful. Through the window boxes of flowers, Rosmer and Rebecca look out upon the mill which is inseparably associated with the fulfillment of their destiny. THE COUPLE THAT THROW THINGS UP

Why Maple?

Why do we use Maple Syrup?

Not a mixture of cane syrup and maple, but pure Vermont maple. We boil it into the heat before flaking.

The main reason is—the children. They like the flavor of the maple better than anything else it is good for them.

We are making a food which we know to be the best for them. Isn't it wise, for all concerned, to induce them to like it?

Mapl-Flake is the perfect food.

It is so because of our process, consuming hours. Because we spend six hours in steam-cooking. Because of our method of curing, because we toast the thin flakes, for 30 minutes, at a heat of 400 degrees.

There are numerous wheat foods—numerous baked foods. But we spend four times the time that some others spend in the preparing.

The result is, the starch is digestible.

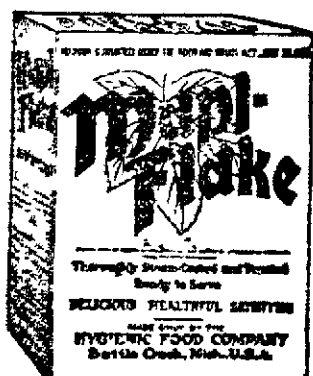

Raw starch gives scarcely more nourishment than chalk. Half-cooked starch yields half its possible nourishment. But from Mapl-Flake you get the benefit of every atom of food that is in it.

What if Mapl-Flake does cost 15 cents, while other flakes cost 10 cents? The cream costs the same on both. And the cream cost is more than the food cost.

Mapl-Flake is all food because it all digests. Isn't it more economical than a food that's half food—a food that but half digests?

Besides, the starch that doesn't digest is bound to ferment and breed germs. That is why we spend those 96 hours in preparing Mapl-Flake.

"It's All Food"

is offered in addition to the regular bill. A German comedian of some reputation will arrive from Columbus for Friday's bill. He is Henry Dyke by name, but no relation to the dykes of Holland. The Apollo quartet of this city, and Mr. Clyde Brooks will be additional features which go to make up an exceedingly attractive amateur bill.

W. B. PATTON.

Mr. W. B. Patton is a well known metropolitan actor of more than ordinary ability, and is exceptionally clever in the character of Barry Ware the Slow Poke. The play is a high class play of Western life, full of heart interest. This, together with the beautiful scenery and electrical effects, make the Slow Poke an attraction that local theater goers cannot afford to miss.

GREAT SOUTHERN THEATER.

Never has Joseph E. Howard written more catchy music—music that is so easy to remember and which it is impossible not to whistle—than he has in "The Girl Question," the latest La Salle theater success which comes to the Great Southern theater on Friday and Saturday, April 10-11th, under the management of the Askin-Singer company. "The Girl Question" is by the same authors as these big successes and the La Salle theater company is still playing it to the S. R. O. sign at every performance. The company is headed by Paul Nicholson, Angevine Norton Florence Ackley, and a dozen other well known principals, who will be supported by a chorus which for beauty, ginger and dancing ability has never been excelled.

TELLS READERS HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM INDIGESTION

Five Minute After Eating One 22 Grain Triangles All Indigestion and Stomach Misery Goes.

When your stomach is weak or lacking in gastric juice, anything that you eat, no difference what it is, will sour on your stomach, raise the bile and adds to cover your food like oil on water, causing indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach nervousness and belching of sour poisons, which produce four odors, nasty taste, bilious headache, heartburn, intestinal griping, and make you an object of misery. This is stomach trouble which can not be overcome with ordinary digestive medicines. It is caused by fermentation of your food, which will be remedied at once by a few 22-grain Triangles of Diapiesin, a preparation pleasant to take and as harmless as candy, though each will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood 3,000 grains of food.

Indigestion is a result, not a cause of your trouble. If the stomach is sour and unhealthy, your food becomes tainted, and that's what is causing the indigestion and gas on stomach and other miseries. Pape's Diapiesin is an Antacid, most powerful digestive and thorough regulator for weak stomachs. These Triangles will digest any kind of food you put in your stomach, and will cleanse the stomach and intestines in a natural way, which makes you feel fine five minutes afterwards.

Any good Pharmacy here will supply you with a case of Pape's Diapiesin for fifty cents, which contains complete curative instructions; also tells the formula, so that you know exactly what you are taking. Just reading about Diapiesin will not help. You should go now and get a case. Put your stomach in full health and by tomorrow you will forget the misery of Stomach trouble. Your case is no different. It isn't stomach nerves or Catarrh of the Stomach, or Gastritis, or Dyspepsia. It is Food rotting—Food Fermentation—that's all—and takes about five minutes to overcome.

CURIOUS RELIC ON EXHIBITION

UNEARTHED YEARS AGO AT THE LICKING NARROWS, BY BLASTING.

Supposed to Have Been Left by De Soto in 1542 While on Exploring Expedition.

Tomorrow, it is said, there will be on exhibition at the Court House, a very curious relic that was unearthed a few years ago by workmen while engaged in blasting near the rock cut and tunnel during the construction of the electric line that runs through what is known as Licking Narrows.

The relic, or whatever it may be termed, is a document with the writings and other characters on it nearly illegible on account of evident age and exposure.

No publicity was given the finding of the paper at the time of its discovery, for after a blast, it was picked up by one of the Italian laborers and handed to a man who lived nearby and who was standing near the work. Curious about the blasting operations. As the workman could not speak the English language plain enough to explain only that he found it, not much importance was attached to it, so the man to whom it was given just put it in his pocket, and on his return home that evening placed it in a trunk intending to look over it at some time in the future, no doubt. That he evidently did examine it again is evidenced by the fact that the paper was found among the man's effects and in an envelope addressed to parties in Newark, with the request that the document be further examined, and if it was of any importance, that it should become the property of the Licking County Historical Society. The man to whom the document was given, died some time ago while away on a visit, and the paper was sent here according to the request.

As said before, the writing is very dim, but after careful examination by several scholars here, it was pronounced undoubtedly in the Spanish language, and seems to be a record of something that was done in the vicinity here by a Spanish expedition of discovery, for the date in Roman figures is faintly discernible, and is made out to read 1542, which is about the date that De Soto went on his quest for what might be found in the unknown west.

It is not known that De Soto came this far north in his wanderings, but it is conceded by traces of his expedition, that he came as far north as the big river, presumably the Ohio, to the mouth of the Muskingum river, and tried to get westward by the routes of the Muskingum and Licking rivers, and finding the country not practical for traveling by this route, it may be that he or a part of his party reached this vicinity, then turned back and rejoined the main party, after leaving evidences of their presence in the shape of this document, which contains also of a crude map, and to make the above theory tenable, it has a crude drawing on it of what the Black Hand was, that was blasted away when the canal was built, and as described by the old people long since passed away, and who saw the hand on the rock with their own eyes.

In the drawing, the index finger of the hand points downward and at an angle of about 22 degrees from the top horizontal. This makes the thumb point also downward, and slightly backward, and would indicate a point very close where the paper was found. Small arrows are plainly seen at the points of the finger and thumb in the picture, which rather plainly tells the story that the paper is a record of something hidden in the vicinity by early explorers. The whole affair is very interesting to the archaeologists and historians, who have had access to the paper, and they are confident that if the position of the hand that was on the rock could be anywhere near found out that no doubt something else bearing on the case would be found at the place where the finger pointed.

Some of the words on the manuscript are fairly plain, but as the language is Spanish, old forms are used, and just now no one who has had the opportunity to investigate, has been able to translate these words. Several words, however, are fairly plain both in the manuscript and as to the meaning. "Replica" is used, and is held by one of the interpreters here to indicate that a copy was made of the record, and where the signature should be, a faint trace in the writing appears "L is e Mos o o." The spaces that are evidently where letters were originally and if filled in would likely complete a name.

According to the wishes of the last owner of the paper, it is now the property of the public, but on account of the fragile texture of the manuscript, it must be handled very carefully to prevent its destruction, consequently it can be only on exhibition at the quarters mentioned above for only a limited time, but arrangements will likely be made in the future so that students of antiquities can use it in further research.

Wall Paper Talk No. 27.

Philosophy of Color

Harmony of color is like harmony of sound. In music certain notes used in combination produce harmonious sounds. If ten notes are struck they must be the right ones, or the sound will jar upon our sensibilities. So in color, the same law of exactness applies, and we must learn to analyze and comprehend the law that governs just the same as the scale in music.

There are three primary colors, three secondary colors, three tertiary colors and innumerable shades, tints and modulations. All these colors bear relation one to another, and it is a knowledge of these relations that must be grasped before one can acquire a successful expression of harmony.

The primary colors are the three colors of the spectrum. If you will take pains to notice that when a ray of sunshine passes through a glass prism—if the colors are received upon a pure white screen, you will find a pure blue, a pure red, and a pure yellow. In our talk tomorrow we will tell you of the other colors and combinations.

Come and see for yourself the beautiful illustrations of harmony in our immense stock of wall papers.

A LOVELY COMPLEXION WITHOUT POWDER OR ROUGE.

When a woman reaches the point where she is under the necessity of using powder and rouge, it is a virtual admission that her complexion is deteriorating. Re it said to her credit, she usually uses these makeshifts under force of necessity. She would gladly dispense with them, but all too well she realizes that fully half of her beauty would be gone.

The following face wash, now in almost universal use among Parisian women (and their matchless complexions attest its efficacy) will restore clearness of skin and delicacy of tint to the plainest of complexions if applied daily.

Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, 2 ounces; Cologne Spirits, 1 ounce; Eppotone (skin food) 4 ounces; put the Eppotone in a pint of hot water (not boiling) and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirits. It is quite an easy matter to mix the ingredients according to above directions, and can best be done at home.

Inspecting Police System.
Mayor Gall Hamilton of Coshocton was in Newark Wednesday, inspecting the police system used here. He was much impressed with the completeness of the way the officers and men keep in touch with each other, and as the Board of Safety of that city is contemplating the installing of a system similar to the one in vogue here, everything was explained to him by Mayor Atherton and Chief Zergiebel. The patrol especially came in for a thorough inspection, as a hurry-up wagon is badly needed there.

At an official meeting of the board of trustees of the First M. E. church, a great deal of enthusiasm was shown on the part of all the members present relative to having a committee appointed to consider the advisability of repairing, enlarging or constructing a new church edifice. The general feeling seemed to be in favor of selling the old site, procuring a new one and erecting a new church. A committee of five, consisting of Judge C. W. Seward, J. E. Mitchell, J. S. Price, L. P. Sisson and John Ruge, together with the pastor, Rev. L. C. Sparks, was appointed to take charge of the matter.

Spring Humors
Impure or effete matters, accumulated in the blood during the winter cause in the spring such disfiguring and painful troubles as boils, pimples, and other eruptions, also weakness, loss of appetite, that tired feeling.
The best medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly cleanses the blood, and effects permanent cures by giving healthy functional activity to the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

Sore throats are Hood's Sarsaparilla in chocolate tablet form. They have identically the same curative properties as the liquid form, but are easier to take, and are more economical, as they are not lost by evaporation, breakage, or leakage. But I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla helps me from the first dose, completely restores good health and strength.

REPUBLICAN PAPER FIRES BROADSIDE AT CAMPS OF COX, BROWN AND GUILBERT

Under the headline, "Gangsters Have No Defenders, Not a Republican Paper in Ohio Has Denied Assertions Made by the Blade," the Toledo Blade published the following "screamer" on the first page of its issue of Saturday, March 28:
"Nearly three weeks have passed since The Blade began its publication of information showing that Brown, Cox and Guilbert arranged a slate and pushed it through the state convention, nominating Green for treasurer, Fullington for auditor, and Denman for attorney general.
"The reason why this triumvirate wanted these three men nominated and why they want them elected have been set forth. Cox was determined to have Green succeed McKinnon, because Green, as McKinnon's chief deputy, has been good to Cox in the way of placing large sums of state money in Cox's banks.
"Cox, Brown and Guilbert want to control the offices of treasurer, auditor and attorney general, because through these offices they can dominate a number of important state boards which have to do with remitting of taxes of great corporations. These men want to control the Republican party and place themselves in a position from which they cannot be dislodged.
"Under the pretense of being for Taft these men, who will not hesitate to scuttle the party whose principles they profess to espouse, fixed up the slate and succeeded in naming these three candidates, believing the Republicans would blindly march to the polls and vote for them.
"In every part of Ohio are coming protests. The rank and file are serving notice they will not stand for the rule of the bosses. The revolt is on and it is growing, and will continue to grow.
"While a number of Republican newspapers are as strong in their condemnation of this unholy alliance as The Blade it is significant that not a party paper in Ohio has denied that Cox, Brown and Guilbert did arrange a slate and did push it through the convention.
"Some papers in order to be 'regular', are supporting the machine nominees, but are making no excuse for the three bosses and do not defend the methods they employed. They are closing their eyes to what has been done and are swallowing the dose with as good grace as possible.
"But the average Republican knows his business. He will not permit boss party rule. These three candidates are marked for defeat and the only thing that will save them is their resignation from the ticket and men chosen in their places who do not wear the brand of Brown, Cox and Guilbert.
"In other words, Ohio Republicans propose to stand by the sentiment enunciated by Secretary Taft in his Akron speech and deal party bosses a knock-out blow at the polls."
No cigar is so good that it doesn't eventually meet its match.

MRS. FERGUSON CONFIRMS REPORT HUSBAND'S DEATH

Former B. & O. Conductor Dies Suddenly March 14, in Mexico, but Details Are Not Known.

A letter just received by the Advocate from Mrs. Grant Ferguson at Aguascalientes, Mexico, confirms the report of last week announcing the death of her husband, who a few years ago was a well known Baltimore and Ohio railway conductor of East Newark. Mrs. Ferguson says:

"I have the sad intelligence to convey to you that my husband, Mr. U. G. Ferguson, died suddenly on the night of March 14 at Santa Luceria, where he was conductor on the Vera Cruz Pacific railroad. I am not able to give you the full particulars as yet, but I know that he was given a nice burial by the O. R. C. of that place. I have made no definite arrangements for myself as yet but will likely remain here for a while at least.

"While writing this letter I received a telegram from the Advocate inquiring about Mr. Ferguson but owing to some controversy about sending a reply to the press dispatch I decided to answer your message with this letter. When I get the full particulars about Mr. Ferguson's death I will write you again.

"Respectfully,
"MRS. U. G. FERGUSON."

ARRIVING

On Every Train Are Newark Players—Good Fast Bunch From All Appearances.

Well, they are still coming in. Doc Abbott came last night from his Co-shoot home, and with him came Frank Moore, the big pitcher that Secretary Hopkins signed for a try-out, and who from past performances should make good with the Molders. J. U. Cheney, first baseman, from Newcomertown, reached town today, ready for his tryout.

The boys from around Cleveland, Roy Roth and Carl Beeman, pitcher and infielder, will probably arrive this afternoon, while the evening train will bring the players from the Hoosier state. Ike Ellison, the Bellairs southpaw will land in Newark tonight at 9.30 if his plans turn out right. Fred Koehl, the Sycamore lad who will be here for a tryout, in the pitching department, will reach Newark tonight. Walter Smith from Massillon, will also be "among those present" by this time tomorrow.

FAN MILL

In Club House This Morning Instead of Scheduled Practice—Workmen Are Busy.

Manager Berryhill, Fielder Doc Abbott, Third Baseman Wratten, Fielder Snyder, First Baseman Cheney and Pitcher Moore, accompanied by Business Manager Maurath and Director Koos, loaded down with bats and other necessities, journeyed to the park this morning.

The weather was too cold for practice so a full sized fanning bee was pulled off in the club house. The new men were properly impressed with the stories told by the old Molders of the games of last season, and wished more than once that they could have been here then.

Berryhill speaks well of his new men, for while he doesn't know some of them personally, yet he has their history at his finger ends and thinks he can figure out a bunch this year that will put up as good, if not a better game than last season.

The men under Groundkeeper Jack Lake are busy putting the grounds and property of the club in shape, and things are beginning to take on their old look of last season. The diamond is in good shape and one or two days of sunny weather would be all that is required to put in the best condition.

The reserved seats this year will be at the right end of the grand stand, facing the diamond, and will be even more comfortable than the ones last year. They will be placed by Sunday. The spaces on the fence that will be used for signs are being reserved and the work of painting them will be started soon. Several more were sold today, and the advertising committee is well pleased with the response of the merchants.

The annual meeting and smoker of the Board of Trade will be held in Assembly hall, Union block, Thursday evening, April 23. The feature of the occasion will be an address by Secretary J. Y. Bassell, of the Columbus Board of Trade. Mr. Bassell is an authority on this kind of work, having made the Columbus Board of Trade a great success.

Invitations will soon be mailed to all members, and as preparations will only be made for those who have paid their membership, a call will at once be made for the annual dues.

At this meeting a summary of the year's work will be presented in the reports of the officers and various committees.

The event promises to be a delightful one and will doubtless be attended by the full membership of the board.

LAST CHANCE

On page 7 appears a formal announcement of the withdrawal of the great wholesale offer on Stoddard's Lectures, of which a large number of people have availed themselves during the past few weeks. The time limit on this remarkable offer is now drawing to a close. There is yet time, however, for intending purchasers, or those who wish to look into the matter, if they will send name and address to Box No. 372, Newark, Ohio. The offer is open to all readers of this paper wherever they reside.

Just see how Stoddard's Lectures stand in this community. Here are some of the scores of testimonials the publishers have received:

Edward Kibler says: "They are a liberal education in themselves."

Miss Bertie Jones, principal of the Fourth street school, calls them "a mine of solid practical information," and says that her set "is better than it was represented." While Miss Kilpatrick, principal of the East Main street school, after using Stoddard's Lectures for eight years, says: "They are a constant source of pleasure and profit."

Mr. J. D. Simpkins, superintendent of schools, has broken his rule against commending subscription books to say over his signature that "Stoddard's Lectures have no superior in everything that goes to make a book which interests and profits men, women and children alike."

It costs nothing to look at this great publication and it will mean money to you to get in on this wholesale offer now about to close.

Drop a postal card to Box No. 372, Newark, Ohio.

WRESTLING

Bout Between Hackenschmidt and Gitch Will Be Friday Night in Chicago.

Chicago, April 1.—The long heralded Hackenschmidt-Gotch wrestling bout will take place Friday night and everything points now to the largest audience that ever witnessed an athletic exhibition of this nature.

"Hack" is training in the Chicago Athletics association building while but a few score yards away Gotch is undergoing his preliminary work. Many women are expected to attend and a whole section, comprising several hundred seats, have been reserved for them. These seats are among the best in the house and give a full view of the stage. Gotch is at an advantage, since he understands the catch-as-catch-can style of wrestling, while the Russian is practically unfamiliar with this system. However he is rapidly mastering it.

WERE YOU A VICTIM?

The usual fun which announces the arrival of April went the rounds in Newark Wednesday. Every imaginable trick, from gags up to more expensive fun, was indulged in, with the result that plenty of "April fools" got all that was coming to them.

Perhaps one of the best ones that happened claimed a well known local physician as its victim. The doctor received an express package that cost him in the neighborhood of 80 cents. When he opened it he found a bundle of stones and the card of a Columbus friend bearing the greetings of the occasion.

Reputation For Quality

In buying a FORD you buy a car with a REPUTATION FOR QUALITY second to none. From a company that considers its reputation its largest asset, and the maintenance of this of chief importance.

Model S Roadster $750

Any man buying an automobile has a right to, and should demand full value for the money expended. He should insist that for every dollar the car costs him, he get all the automobile that can possibly be supplied for that dollar.

The Question Is:

how can a man be positive that in the car he is buying, he is getting full value.

Catalogue, salesman and paint cannot always be relied upon to present honestly the merits or demerits of any proposition.

Where the FORD BUYER is absolutely safe is in the fact that he is buying a car designed by the most successful, capable and best known automobile engineer in the world, Henry Ford.

The largest force at work today selling Ford cars is the 16,000 cars in successful operation, proving Ford superiority.

Factories Operating

CITY OF UTICA LOOKING FORWARD TO PROSPEROUS TIMES THIS SPRING.

Ladies' Aid Society Sends Substantial to Deaconess Home at Cleveland.

Utica, O., April 1.—The Central Window Glass factory started operations last Thursday night at midnight, with the shops on the first shift. The manager Mr. Nickel, reports that he now has 22 shops signed up and more are expected to come in slowly during the next few weeks. A good run of glass is being had. Several old Amalgamated men who have been working elsewhere in National factories have returned here and gone to work, saying that they can make no money in those factories, owing to the poor flaking and cutting. Owing to some clause regarding the number of pots in operation in their plant, the cutters and flatters were given a cut of about 20 per cent in their wages Saturday. This, however, did not prevent them from returning to work. The rumor that the Advance (cathedral) glass factory was to shut down soon has been declared to be untrue. The factory expects to continue in full operation for some months yet. With all four factories in operation and the spilling work of the gas companies opening up, things are beginning to pick up in Utica. Trade is better, houses are being rented that were empty, and there is as large a crowd of men as ever at the tables on Saturday who are bound for the Newark drink emporiums.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church sent a large amount of food and clothing this week to the Deaconess Home in Cleveland, for use among the poor.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clutter south of town. Consideration $1200. Mr. Clutter has sold his farm in Morgan township for $2000 to Mr. Bell.

This farm has a gas lease of $400. The Agnes Deary property on Main street was put up at auction by the executor of the estate of Mr. Bell.

SPRING CONFERENCE

Still Attracting Large Crowds at Granville—Prof. Price Speaks This Evening.

Granville, April 1.—Another large congregation gathered Tuesday evening in the Baptist church and were led in an exposition of Scriptural and devotional service by Dr. W. A. Waldo, D.D., of Cleveland, which was followed by a beautiful number rendered by a quartette of young men of Denison university, consisting of Messrs. Lloyd, Coe, Foote and Wolf.

Dr. H. F. Stillwell presided at the evening meeting and the principal feature of the evening service was the sermon by Dr. W. B. Wallace, of Cleveland, on "The Experience of the Prophet, Nehemiah," with the theme, "The Value of a High Conception of Beauty." Dr. Wallace is a young man who recently came from Utica, N. Y., to one of the largest churches of Cleveland, and his sermon was a magnificent presentation of the high conception of Christian beauty in character building, in home building, in nation building and in the building of the Kingdom of God.

The afternoon session Wednesday sustained the high interest of the preceding session. A very interesting discussion, with several on their feet at once, followed the presentation of the papers and in a brief business session at the close it was unanimously voted to continue the spring conference at Granville.

Dr. Ira M. Price of Chicago University, arrived here this morning and will deliver his address "Asyria and Israel," with Stereopticon, at Recital Hall Wednesday evening. The lecture will begin at 7 o'clock, to which the public is generally invited. At 8 o'clock a reception to the visiting clergymen will be given at Stone Hall.

Thursday, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., Prof. Clark W. Chamberlin of the Physics department, will give at Science Hall, a popular address on "The Methods of Minute Measurement" and will give a demonstration of his most recent form of his wonderful Compound Interferometer. Following this Prof. Frank Carney of the Geological department will give an interesting address on "The Relation of Geography to History." To these addresses others besides the visitors will be welcome.
